Life: A Better Way

A Solution to All of Our Perceived Problems By John Nolan

ISBN 0595360122. Paperback. 86 pp. Sept. 2005. JMN Holdings. $10.95.

Life: A Better Way asserts that all of us are in more control of the direction of our lives than we realize and that, because this is true, each one of us is in a position to experience a significantly more rewarding life than we have attained up to this point.

If we stopped for a few moments and thought about what we have accomplished during the day-week-month, we would begin to realize that most of what we do is from habit or to meet standards set by society. There seem to be very little, if any, quality choices available to change our direction. This is the main reason why our society is enmeshed in problems, unhappiness, and chaos.

Life: A Better Way challenges each person to honestly look at his or her life by examining the activities, thoughts and values that are behind our actions. The author discusses the core problems that hold us back from reaching our true potential and how we can eliminate these problems and reach a higher level of happiness, stability, and peace of mind. The answer lies in our thinking—through the proper use of our mind which is our greatest asset and the most underused.

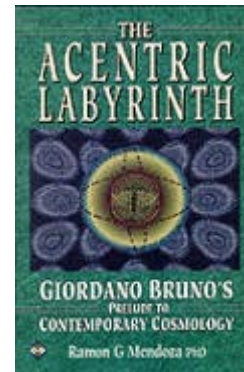

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: John Nolan has spent over 30 years in corporate work in the media industry, traveling domestically and internationally 50 percent of that time. He has always lived in the New York City area, and now lives in Westchester County. Life: A Better Way is based on insights and observations he has gleaned entirely from his personal experiences in industry. He will shortly publish a companion title, Waking to Truth.

The Acentric Labyrinth: Giordano Bruno's Prelude to Contemporary Cosmology

By Ramon G. Mendoza

ISBN 1852306408. Hardcover. 292 pp. June 1995. Element. $26.95.

Is the universe finite or infinite? Is it eternal? Is the human mind inter-related? Is there one, or are there countless universes? Is there life on other planets? Giordano Bruno addressed all these questions 400 years before there was proof of an expanding universe, before Chaos Theory or Einstein. His was dangerous thinking in an era when Church dogma taught that the Sun orbited the Earth, and as a consequence he was burned at the stake as a heretic. Whereas Galileo left the sun at the center of the universe, Bruno saw that there is no center, that we live in an acentric universe. Ramon Mendoza skillfully shows how this implies that in our deepest nature we too are acentric. A radical reassessment of one of the most original minds of all time, this book shows that Bruno's vision of the universe is as relevant today as it was in his own lifetime. This thoroughly researched biography offers fascinating insights into the controversy caused by this eccentric genius, and confirms him as a major figure in the history of the scientific and philosophical mind.

"An excellent historical reassessment of the importance of Bruno's contribution to contemporary cosmology...the author identifies Bruno's vision of 'intelligent matter' as a 16th-century forerunner of [...today's] revolution in science which is attempting to find a place for consciousness in its cosmology." - Christian Dequincey, The Visionary Eye.

"Deemphasizes Bruno's links with earlier and contemporary esoteric traditions...a worthy, if incomplete, meditation." - Leonard George, Gnosis.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Ramon Mendoza is a former director of the Humanities Programme at Florida International University. A Cuban-born former Jesuit priest, he has written acclaimed works on Martin Heidegger, Ignatius Loyola, and Franz Kafka.

Dynamic Energetic Healing

By Howard Brockman

NEW AGE BOOKS ABROAD, 5-2

Table of Contents - Summer-Fall 2006

ISBN 10: 0-9766469-3-5. ISBN 13: 978-0-9766469-1-4. Hardcover. 496 pp. Illustrated. February 2006. Columbia Press LLC. $27.95.

Howard Brockman introduces a new psychotherapy model that creatively integrates ancient spiritual healing practices with modern psychotherapy. Dynamic Energetic Healing® is an energy-based psychotherapy model, combining energy psychology, core shamanism, and process-oriented psychology. The model assists readers to release and eliminate trauma caused by unidentified sources of anxiety, depression and relationship difficulties. Brockman's book explains the Dynamic Energetic Healing® model and its practical applications, along with providing seventeen in-depth case studies that illustrate the model's successful implementation.

"Very highly recommended reading for the student of energy healing and in-depth metaphysics, Dynamic Energetic Healing: Integrating Core Shamanic Practices with Energy Psychology Applications and Processwork Principles, by psychotherapist Howard Brockman, is an informed and informative instructional reference for the very intricate detailing of energy-based psychotherapy with spiritual inclination. As an easy-to-use, "user-friendly" guide, practical for all students of their own metaphysical body, Dynamic Energetic Healing is knowledgeably written." - Midwest Book Review.

About the Author: Howard Brockman, LCSW is a psychotherapist who has been in private practice since 1981. He is a diplomate in clinical social work and a founding member of The Pacific Northwest Center for Energetic Healing. He has a master's degree in Social Ethics/Religious Studies from the University of Southern California and a master's degree in Social Work from Portland State University. He also has 20 years' experience in Kundalini Yoga and meditation practices. With extensive training in processwork, core shamanism (since 1981) and energy psychology, he has created a unique synthesis of psychospiritual healing methods that awakens the power of applied human consciousness. These methods come together powerfully in Dynamic Energetic Healing®. Howard is married with two sons and two Samoyeds. He resides in Salem, Oregon.

Open the Coffin

A True Story of the Supernatural

By Paul Casey

The Medium

ISBN 0-595-67255-8. Hardcover. 260 pp. 2005. iUniverse. $16.95.

The apparition that entered Paul Casey's dreams, and then one day his office, had once been the mother of emperors, kings and queens—Juana I of Spain, for 51 years ruler of "all the lands to the west of Africa." Scarcely known today, in the 16th century Juana tried to establish a democratic government that would have spanned the Americas from pole to pole. Her reward was to be betrayed by her family, declared insane, and committed to the horrors of a stone room without light, where she remained until her death in 1555, nearly a decade later.

Why is Juana I only a footnote in the history books? The answer is a sinister one. She was too naive, too passionate, too outspoken—too much trouble. The victim of an international conspiracy that has remained a dark secret for close to 500 years, she was made to disappear.

Her re-appearance in a 20th-century office building was independently perceived by others. For a week the office of Paul Casey was alive with mental flashes, reenactments of treachery, high treason, and mind-games. Then, partly with the help of a psychic, Juana I began to unfold her passionate, dramatic story. Then Paul Casey began to fall in love with her...

"A fascinating and compelling exploration of the life of Juana of Trastamara (older sister of Catherine of Aragon, wife of Henry VIII), better known as La Loca, the Mad Queen of Spain. Casey...is a physicist, psychic, mystic, and writer.... Thirty-five years ago the ghost of Juana visited him and he found himself channeling her life, a deep dark experience that took hold of his life and would not let go until he had given voice to her passion and anguish by writing about her 20 years later, first in a book, then as a play which was ultimately staged at the Stella Adler Theatre. Open the Coffin not only sheds light on a tragic, forgotten historical figure—even though Juana fought valiantly to bring democracy to the 16th Century, she is rarely mentioned in most reference books—but it explores with urgency and power the non-linear, mystical side of life where, as Casey puts it, 'time and space restraints shut down.'" - Willard Manus, Book Scope, January 2006.

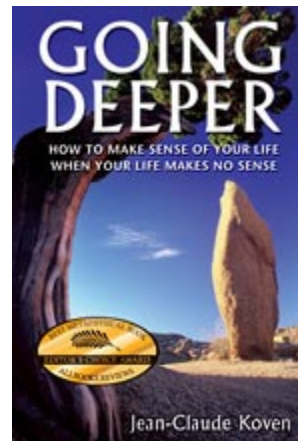

About the Author: One of today's top theoretical physicists, Paul Casey has proposed an alternative energy process that harnesses the rotation of the earth. Developer of the famous California Spangled cats (announced by Neiman Marcus), he has written for prime-time TV, film and the stage; his Lassie episodes won the National Humane Society Award. He is also a well-known photographer and pianist. All his friends, however, know him as a psychic—someone who has been able to predict the future.

GOING DEEPER

How to Make Sense of Your Life When Your Life Makes No Sense

By Jean-Claude Koven

ISBN 09723954-0-7. Paperback. 430 pp. June 2006. Prism House Press. $16.95.

If you: are deeply saddened by the way humans treat each other; suffer from allergies and other sensitivities; feel somewhat alienated, even from friends and loving family; love to gaze out at the stars; find yourself thinking that UFOs and channeling might be true; are more comfortable with plants or animals than with people; have a sense that you came here to do something important . . . you may be one of the seventy million Wanderers who are here to assist with the impending shift. These cosmic servers have come to Earth from other dimensions through the Veil of Forgetting. The information in this book is structured to restore their memory. If you are one of them, this book is meant for you.

"This is exceptional material, most rewarding to read and a true delight for me. Many efforts have been made to incorporate principles of The Law of One into written works of fiction and nonfiction, and this is one try that successfully illuminates many good points in this body of material. The writing is wonderful, deftly witty throughout." - Carla L. Rueckert (McCarty), author, A Wanderer's Handbook.

"Mythic and masterful, it is a work to be read and reread." - Jean Houston, Ph.D, Director, The Foundation for Mind Research.

"Brilliant, creative, engaging sequel to The Celestine Prophecy. You can't read Going Deeper without experiencing a consciousness shift." - Jeanine Just, author/lecturer, founder of Visionaries University.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Jean-Claude Koven is a highly successful entrepreneur who has launched more than a dozen business ventures over the course of four decades, during which time he has studied with spiritual masters and led awareness-expanding workshops on six continents. He currently lives in Rancho Mirage, California with his wife, Arianne, and his dog, Zeus.

THE VIOLET LIGHT

The Power That Changes Everything

By Paco Alarcon - Kahan

ISBN # 1418450294. Paperback. 332 pp. November 2004. Authorhouse. $22.95.

The author writes: "My aim with this book is to start a consciousness revolution at all levels on the planet—a revolution that has as its main objective to make everyone spiritually independent. This process is inevitable. The moment people are put in touch with this energy, their lives start to change. Their lives start to improve and to move in the right direction. Their spirituality acquires new dimensions and they find a new freedom. It could not be any other way, since higher vibrations rule over lower vibrations and the energy of the Violet Light is the highest vibration of Universal Intelligence.

"This revolution is bringing people to the realization that to change, to prosper, to be happy, it isn't necessary to suffer. By suffering I mean enduring hardship. Everyone who chooses to take a step in the direction set forth in The Violet Light will discover the truth of this. The only suffering there is, is the suffering you may feel as your ego reacts to God's power and blessings. All of us will soon learn that it is best to surrender and let God do His work of restoring our consciousness to unity, love and peace.

"This energy is powerful; it is available to you, and it will change your life. All you have to do is work with it. I will lead you to the connection with this precious gift of the Creator. Success is guaranteed, because in this case it is independent of the human condition. The energy does its work on you regardless of your understanding of it and regardless of your qualifications. To transform your life with this energy, you do not need to understand deep spiritual matters. You need only connect with the energy."

The Violet Light describes an energy that burns away karma at a speed unknown on earth till now. Everything we can imagine is possible with the Violet Light. It's a very fast way of creating the destiny we want and making our dreams come true. The Violet Light makes everything work; if something isn't going to work, the Light exchanges it for a better reality. This transformation doesn't depend on our ability to understand deep spiritual matters; it mainly depends on our connection with this energy of grace. The issue is how to access this connection in a real and permanent way. By taking the reader step-by-step on a magical journey of increasing power and love, this book shows how true prosperity and real inner peace can be accessed. This is undoubtedly one of the most powerful and love-filled spiritual experiences available to people today. The Violet Light reveals a method for directly connecting with a high source of Grace. Once that connection is made, anything is possible. The book comprises the course and the secrets needed for connecting with and using this energy—that same energy that has been given to thousands over the world. Read about their miraculous experiences and become one of them.

FLYING WITHIN

A Passionate Spiritual Novel

by Paco Alarcon - Kahan

ISBN # 1420883941. Paperback. 160 pp. January 2006. Authorhouse. $15.49.

Flying Within is a spiritual novel of great passion. It tells the story of an executive who begins to find his life in the materialistic corporate world empty and meaningless. One day, on arriving at his office, the possibility of a different way of life begins to dawn on him. He decides to leave his old life and look for a more meaningful existence. As a result of this, he runs into unexpected events and meets an unusual individual and group of people who become fond of him and who have themselves taken a step toward a new way of engaging with a life of joyful discovery and passion. All of them are in training to access unknown secrets and spiritual revelations that will transform their lives. Flying Within is an inspiring book, full of spiritual revelations that it makes accessible and practical. The book develops very challenging and transforming concepts out of these revelations. The wisdom and discipline it contains can be applied to all walks of life, to create excellence in business, in politics, in religion, in competitive sports, in music, in painting—indeed, in any profession.

About the Author of THE VIOLET LIGHT and FLYING WITHIN: Kahan's unique and intense spiritual work, conducted on several spiritual paths and in several countries over a period of more than 24 years, has uncovered important keys to humanity's evolution at this time. From the spiritual revelations he has received, he has developed a number of powerful and original teachings that give access to deep and real spiritual experiences and are aimed at bringing spiritual energy and its power into people's lives. The courses and books he has created are intended to teach his secrets to others. Kahan's teachings reveal all the potency and depth of spiritual realities; they bring people closer to a true experience of God. Kahan aims at uniting the power of Spirit with day-to-day life. He is also a spiritual counsellor, a healer, and a musician.

A LIFE OF MIRACLES

Mystical Keys to Ascension

By Almine

ISBN 0-9724331-0-4. Paperback. 248 pp. November 2002. Spiritual Journeys LLC. $24.95.

"See the perfection underlying appearances, and in seeing it, bring it about. You empower that which you focus on." - Almine

A Life of Miracles: Mystical Keys to Ascension reveals man's true identity as a being as vast as the cosmos having a human experience. Follow this well-laid out roadmap to discover your innate personal power. Learn to shed layers of social conditioning and reclaim your birthright to live a life of mystery and magic.

"Almine's gifts as a mystic are a revelation to all who know her. She is an international phenomenon and certainly deserves to be." - His Excellency Sir Colville Young, M.B.E., Ph.D., Governor General of Belize.

"The San Bushmen of Southern Africa are gladdened by Almine's love and respect for us. I stand behind her 100% and the great work she does for the earth" (translation from Afrikaans). - Delaria (Baba) Festus, Wisdomkeeper of the San Bushmen of Southern Africa.

"Almine's book is a great piece of literature for our time." - Leonard Orr, founder of Rebirthing Breathwork, author and trainer known worldwide.

"I am really impressed with Almine and the integrity of her revelations. My respect for her is immense and I hope that others will find as much value in her teachings as I have." - Dr. Fred Bell, former NASA scientist, author of The Promise and Rays of Hope—Crystals of Light.

About the Author: Almine is a Toltec three-pronged Nagual, mystic, healer, and teacher who for years has traveled through many countries empowering thousands of individuals drawn to her comprehensible delivery of advanced metaphysical concepts. In the wake of her humility and selfless service, unspeakable miracles have followed, changing the lives of men and women forever. In her life made rich by the mystical and the holy, Almine has stood face-to-face with many of the ancient Masters of Light with full memory in both spoken and written form of the ancient language of the gods.

Almine is a woman of deep spiritual vision, healing power and love. Her life is a life of miracles. For many years, she had been quietly assisting advanced Lightworkers at her home on the Oregon Coast. In February of 1997, Spirit instructed her to share with the world her information on ascension and mystery-school healing techniques.

JOURNEY TO THE HEART OF GOD

Mystical Keys to Immortal Mastery

By Almine

ISBN 0-9742331-2-0. Paperback. 288 pp. August 2005. Spiritual Journeys LLC. $24.95.

In January 2004, after three months of intense physical preparation, Almine experienced a transfiguration, entering the presence of the Infinite for the second time since moving into God-consciousness (the state of no longer identifying with the ego) in 2000. In the weeks that followed, the powerful revelations contained in this book emerged from that all-encompassing silence. Having lost most of her linear thinking during this transition, Almine wrote much of this book without conscious thought, in the form of the automatic writing that is now habitual to her.

Reading Journey to the Heart of God is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see through the eyes of someone who has encountered the indescribable realms of eternity. From such a perspective, insights can come that heal the deepest wounds of alienation found in the human heart. These sacred messages convey the true identity of mankind as light beacons of Creation and way-showers back to the Heart of God.

Never before in the history of any mystery schools have such illuminating revelations challenged everything we thought we knew about the destiny of man. Within every fiber of our beings and in the depth of our hearts, truth, no matter how profound, can be recognized for what it is, and it is truth—such as that expressed in Journey to the Heart of God—that shall set us free.

"What a priceless experience to be able to catch a glimpse into one of the most remarkable lives of our time. This book is bound to have an indelible impression." - Ambassador Armen Sarkissian, former prime minister of the Republic of Armenia and astrophysicist at Cambridge University, U.K.

"Almine is exceptional! People flock from all over the world to benefit from her unique power." - His Grace the Duke of Valderano, Duke of Castel di Spagno, Marquis de Rio Castel.

DWELL IN LOVE IV: The Inner Life of Jesus

By Jerry K. Paul

IV: ISBN 0-9741673-3-9. Paperback. 151 pp. 2005. Isaiah Publications. $15.95. [I: ISBN 0-9741673-0-4. 157 pp. II: ISBN 0-9741673-1-2. 126 pp. $14.95. III: ISBN 0-9741673-2-0. 154 pp. $15.95.]

Jesus came to teach us how to dwell in love. He gave us the teachings, and He gave us the model. He left us hints about communing with Love itself—whether with the Father, with Jesus Himself, or with Love in the heart of another person. Communing with Love leads to healed relationships and physical healings, and we wake up one day knowing that we have been living in an ocean of Love all the time, but didn't know it. The four books in the series offer inspiring messages and accounts of the author's experiences, and they provide practical ways to commune with Love and with Spirit. The fourth book puts it all together by describing the inner life of Jesus and the pattern He set for us to follow. The Dwell in Love series explains in simple and inspiring language how to express the Love that we are.

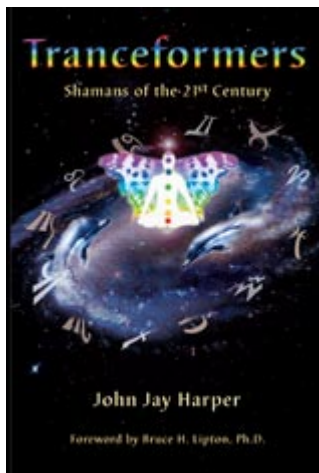

"The discourses in this volume have opened up and deepened my sense of personal connection with Jesus in a way that no other publication has ever done for me. In some cases the material is astonishing, and in others comfortingly familiar, but always it carries that 'ring of truth' that awakens the soul to divine possibilities. The Master's imprint is surely on this book." - Lynn Sparrow.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dwell in Love was not written by Jerry K. Paul. Many years ago, he was studying a book on spirituality that he found helpful, but distressing in the way it dealt with intellectual concepts. Jerry K. Paul asked God to give him material that was inspiring to the heart. Fifteen years later, God's Dictation began. It continues to this day, and comprises the Dwell in Love series.

TRANCEFORMERS SHAMANS OF THE 21ST CENTURY

By John Jay Harper

ISBN # 0-9777904-0-1. Paperback. 362 pp. January 2006. Reality Press. $24.95.

Tranceformers: Shamans of the 21st Century is the true story of this author's contact with a "dead" optics physicist colleague and the telepathic communication that sent him searching for scientific answers to his spiritual questions. Harper draws from this deep well of wisdom: astrology, astronomy, biology, near-death experiences, paranormal psychology and quantum physics, as well as Egyptian and Mayan cosmology overall. He does an excellent job of synthesizing massive amounts of information, making this shift of the ages comprehensible to the general reader.

Clearly, this is a necessary primer for understanding the coming apocalypse of biblical proportions in consciousness, climate, culture and civilization. However, the theme of this book is that, by learning to use trance, we can unlock the mysteries of existence for ourselves. Indeed, this is the big idea behind the Eternal Return of the Sun of God in 2012: Self-Empowerment.

"Anyone striving to get prepared for the upheavals rushing toward us in the next decade will be a giant step ahead of his peers after reading how the shamans of the 21st Century will lead humanity across uncharted territory through the opening of our third eye." - Fred Mills, Prof., Geometry of Divinity.

"The crux of this book is that trance—the method employed by shamans, mediums, and other mystics—is the doorway to the fifth-dimensional field of cosmic consciousness.... [Tranceformers] is an intriguing and fascinating read." - Michael E. Tynn (Depoe Bay, OR), Winner of the Robert H. Ashby Memorial Award offered by the Academy of Religion and Psychological Research for the best essay on death, dying and after-death.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dr. John Jay Harper is a clinical hypnoterapist, futurist, research scientist, and writer. He is a former clinical mental health counselor and a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving also as an electronics and computer specialist in avionics, missileery, and nuclear submarines over a two-decade career with the U.S. Department of Defense in the U.S. and Europe. He is married to Connie, and they have three adult children, eight grandchildren and live in Spokane, WA. (see www.johnjayharper.com)

Your Immortal Body of Light

By Mitchell Earl Gibson, M.D.

ISBN # 0-9777904-5-2. Paperback. 126 pp. September 2006. Reality Press. $17.95.

Dr. Gibson was Chief Resident in Psychiatry at a large inner city medical center when, using meditation, he began his consciousness-expanding journey. On his quest he actually encounters an ancient 'god of healing' known as Djehuti (pronounced Dee-jan-tee), or Thoth. As a psychiatrist, Gibson more than wavered before accepting that he was speaking with an actual entity. But the experience persisted, and eventually Djehuti revealed profound information to Gibson about the formation of the soul and the causes of mental illness.

Dr. Gibson reveals how Words of Power invoke transformation in body-mind-spirit. Our Immortal Body of Light is a credible, highly readable adventure into the land of magic and miracles invoked by meditation. As scholar Jeremy Naydler has declared in Temple of the Cosmos: "It is no coincidence that Thoth, the Lord of Speech, who in the beginning uttered the primordial sounds that thickened into tangible substances and thus brought the world into existence, was also the originator of writing."

Your world will never be the same once you put these writings into practice to create a life that is a dream come true. Both fascinating and chilling, Dr. Gibson's book is not your everyday spiritual awakening story.

"The author's recounting of his personal experiences are reflected in outstanding visual sequences and dramatic character interaction that make this true story resonate with an air of authenticity..." - Lee Levinson, Emmy-winning TV producer.

"Nourishing soul food for the spiritually inclined." - Kirkus Reviews.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dr. Mitchell Earl Gibson is a board-certified forensic psychiatrist, author and public speaker. He received his medical degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, completing his residency training at the Albert Einstein Medical Center in Philadelphia. During his last year of residency, Dr. Gibson served as Chief Resident in Psychiatry and received the Albert Einstein Foundation Research Award for his work in Sleep Disorders. He is a former Chief of Staff at the East Valley Camelback Hospital in Mesa, Arizona, and a Clinical Professor of Medicine and Psychiatry at the Midwestern College of Medicine.

SECRETS OF THE SERPENT

In Search of the Sacred Past

By Philip Gardiner

ISBN # 0-9777904-3-6. Paperback. 156 pp. June 2006. Reality Press. $17.95.

Across time and across the world, an ancient serpent cult once dominated mankind. Then a great battle ensued and Christianity stamped its authority on the face of the planet. Now, after years of research, the real religious history of the world can be told. In Secrets of the Serpent, Philip Gardiner for the first time reveals that the world's most mysterious places were once sacred to the Serpent Cult. The history and mythology of the so-called reptilian agenda and alien visitation in ancient times now has a solid opponent, giving answers for the many symbols and myths often confused by those who believe in such things. In Secrets of the Serpent, the author reveals the real "bloodline" spoken of by Dan Brown in The Da Vinci Code: It is in fact a serpent bloodline.

"Secrets of the Serpent surpasses the revelation of the author's other book, The Serpent Grail, and gives us a clear shot at understanding why ancient man worshipped the snake. In fact, this book is so full of controversial elements that it will be loved and hated all at once. Gardiner even explains the serpentine relationships between Dan Brown's infamous book [Da Vinci Code] and the humble snake." - Stuart Hay, ornithologist.

"The story, the choice of music and the conclusion are inspired, and I am more than impressed; nay, grateful indeed. At the risk of sounding patronizing: excellent work, and in advance of any messiah." - Crichton Miller, The Celtic Cross.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Philip Gardiner is the internationally bestselling author of The Shining Ones: The World's Most Powerful Secret Societies Revealed; Proof: Does God Exist?; and The Serpent Grail, among others. He lives in the heart of Robin Hood country in the U.K., and travels the world in search of the truth about secret societies and forgotten knowledge.

MONTAUK BABIES or The Many Lives of Al Leedskalnin

By O. H. Krill.

Edited and Illustrated by John Malloy

ISBN # 0-9777904-2-8. Paperback. 111 pp. August 2006. Reality Press. $17.95.

In the very near future, the world as we know it is about to end—perhaps not exactly as expected. It's the year 2011, and the earth is riddled with interdimensional holes, UFOs, and more technology and media control than anyone ever predicted. Only one man can stop it—a man by the name of Al Leedskalnin.

Al, like the earth itself, is spiritually and physically falling apart. On the one hand, he is tortured by cut-up memories of his life as a guinea pig for secret government experiments...experiments that may or may not have happened, well over fifty years ago, in a secret underground base in Montauk, Long Island, New York. On the other, he remembers times past that don't necessarily connect: World War Two; the early days of the American frontier; alien abductions.

Like a character in a suit and fedora from a pulp-fiction crime novel, Al faces head-on the imminent destruction of all things human, while clinging to his re-memories and longing for the simpler days of the 40's and 50's. But he can't do it alone. Enter Peabody Freeman, a quantum physicist with a penchant for all-night diners and fast food, who is a prisoner on the same journey and the scientific brains behind the operation.

Both an epic commentary on pop culture and a look (with a wink) to the future, Montauk Babies delights and enlightens by virtue of O.H. Krill's prose and over thirty dazzling illustrations by acclaimed artist and comics creator John Malloy. It's a ride you'll never forget and won't be able to put down, until the climactic ending with a twist that will profoundly affect the future of all mankind.

"Opens the door to a strange and interesting world that promises to entertain while also confronting strange and disturbing truths about everything we think we know." - Jim Martin, Flatlands.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Born in Cleveland, Ohio, O.H. Krill is a former TV actor who now ghostwrites for science-fiction theater and rock opera.

ABOUT THE EDITOR/ILLUSTRATOR: Artistic skills rapidly developed in John Malloy after he was struck by lightning at age 13. Today he interprets the human condition by creating unique epiphanous three-dimensional art.

OUR SECRET PLANET

By Christian von Nidda

ISBN 1411641183. 6 x 9 Paperback. 11 Illustrations. 281 pp. August 2005. Lulu Press. $12.00.

Much of our planet we have not yet explored. We have a better understanding of the lunar surface than of our own oceans, and scientists have little idea of what lies inside the Earth. Theoretical physicists now believe there exist hidden worlds within our physical dimension that we have also yet to discover.

Drawing insights from a multitude of ancient scriptures, together with the findings of leading scientists, philosophers and theologians, Christian von Nidda sheds light on this unknown realm. Our Secret Planet is the product of over a decade of intensive research, which takes the reader on an epic journey beyond the confines of conventional thinking and to places where fact truly is stranger than fiction.

Here is an original, learned and lucid work that will not only appeal to academics of the genre, but also to anyone who longs for answers to the many mysteries of our little-understood planet.

"A well-researched and important book for the twenty-first century." - Prince Ranbir Singh, Incunabula 'planner.'

"There is an abundance of esoteric knowledge about the planet, but little of it can be understood because its 'meaning' is obscured due to linguistic complications. Christian von Nidda has produced a book that overcomes such difficulties by presenting this knowledge in a form palatable for the modern mind." - Jules Violle, European ambassador for the Quorum.

"Intelligent extraterrestrial beings, to those that believe in their existence, are regarded as either benign spiritual and technological educators or callous exploiters of humanity. Christian von Nidda is one of the few researchers, in this field, who has covered sufficient ground to reveal the actual motives of these entities." - 15, Chairman of the Advanced Contact Intelligence Organization (ACIO).

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Baron Christian von Nidda is an author and consultant to many religious and spiritual organisations worldwide. Educated at the highest academic level, he is also a trained channel, psychic and remote viewer. He is based in the United Kingdom, and, being a private individual, prefers to raise consciousness through his writings and personal correspondences. His previous works include A Cosmic Evolution and the film script The Founder's Law.

THE PARTHENON CODE

MANKIND'S HISTORY IN MARBLE

By Robert Bowie Johnson, Jr.

ISBN 0970543832. 7 x 10 Paperback. 251 Black & White Illustrations. 288 pp. June 2004. Solving Light Books. $29.95.

The Parthenon Code reveals, for the first time in 2,000 years, the meaning of the seven sculptural themes on Athena's temple. A simple but hidden artists' code, expressed on vase-paintings and the Parthenon sculptures, leads to the astonishing truth that Greek myth/art chronicles in great detail the reestablishment of the way of Cain (Cain) after the Flood. The events of Eden were part of the Greeks' collective cultural memory, and their special interpretation of those events made up the very basis of their religious system. Greek myth/art is human history. The Book of Genesis is human history. While the viewpoints of each are opposite, the recounted events match each other in convincing detail.

The Greeks knew exactly who Noah was. They called him Nereus, the "Wet One." While it is true that the Greeks built the Parthenon to glorify the serpent-worshipping Eve of Genesis, it is also true that they built it to celebrate their "victory" over Noah and his God.

"Sitting in the shade of the Acropolis in Athens and looking up at the Parthenon while reading it, the book made complete sense of the way ancient Greek artists communicated in a layperson's language...[The book] is in a rare class of literature that can be classified as the beaconing light to understand humanity." - New Europe/The European Weekly.

"One of the most original, engaging, thoughtful, and thought-provoking works....an iconoclastic, mind-stimulating, and strongly recommended read." - The Midwest Book Review.

"The most original book of the decade, if not the last fifty years." - Ron Pramschufer, BooksJustBooks.com.

"This is the book the thinking Christian community has been waiting for." - Ian T. Taylor, Creation Moments.

The Ancient Museum of Dream: Discoveries of a Dream-Artist

By Clyde Anthony and Carolyn Frances

ISBN 1-4184340-0-0. Paperback. Illustrated. 241 pp. June 2004. Authorhouse. $17.50.

This book is a collection of works, of discoveries, gleaned from Clyde Anthony's dreams and visions. It is more than that: Through Carolyn Frances, it is a communication with a consciousness that comes directly from the realm of dreams and visions, a conscious awareness that proclaims the power of these dreams and visions and bears witness to their place in human history. This conscious awareness also testifies to the worth of those communications in the human search for meaning—a search that is borne on the shoulders of the abilities of individual persons but derives its strength from that species that we call Human.

The Ancient Museum of Dream: Discoveries of a Dream-Artist is an affirmation of that search, a testimony to the fertility of humankind's inner life and consciousness which, though it may be fueled by beliefs, is found in life's fecund ground of being itself and springs directly from that great source of being.

No other book goes as deeply into this direct experience, which is the very dance of Earth itself, the apprehension of life's power at its very source.

About the Authors: Clyde Anthony and Carolyn Frances view their dreams as dwelling somewhere between fiction and non-fiction, fusing both perspectives creatively. Therefore, their book is not fiction but a partial account of their creative life-pursuit. It is a collection of works, including discoveries gained through Clyde Anthony's dreams and visions. His vision work is from a uniquely individual perspective. He follows no pathway of beliefs, instead listening to his body's energies and gauging their role in his vision experiences. He seeks out the inner wisdom of those vision experiences both as ancestral language and as new creations, all the while searching through the states of waking, sleeping and all gradations in-between—in both the ancient past and the future—to meld together this unique human triad of creative awareness.

"Many thanks for The Ancient Museum of Dream, a most original title for a most unusual book. There are enough ideas, feelings, quotes, insights and just remarkable perceptions, in many creative ways, to keep me intrigued for a long time indeed. Beautifully put together, with evocative illustrations that show their own unique truths." - Robert F. Butts, co-creator, the Seth books.

OBSERVING SPIRIT

Evaluating Your Daily Progress on the Path to Heaven with Gurdjieff and

Swedenborg

By Peter Rhodes

ISBN 0-87785-316-9. Paperback. 256 pp. 2005. Chrysalis. $16.95.
Winner of Spirituality & Health magazine's "50 Best Spiritual Books of 2005" award.

Based on the teachings of G.I. Gurdjieff, P.D. Ouspensky, Maurice Nicoll, and Emanuel Swedenborg, this book presents a practical guide to spiritual progress. Stressing personal responsibility for overcoming negative traits, Peter Rhodes explains how we can realize our true spiritual potential by cultivating awareness of our baser reactions and by applying the tools of Gurdjieff's spiritual method, "The Work," to our everyday existence.

Rhodes joins "The Work" with the spiritual philosophy of Emanuel Swedenborg to enhance our understanding of how the world of spirit intersects our lives on the earthly level. At the conclusion of each chapter, tools for measuring the reader's progress are provided in the form of weekly tasks and meditations. This book can be used in group workshops or by the individual.

*"...one of the best overviews of 'the Work' (Gurdjieff's method) that we have read....There are so many epiphanies here that it's hard to know where to begin. Rhodes reveals the ways in which we can steal good states from others: for instance, it is a spiritual theft when we stifle another person's joy or enthusiasm. We take ourselves away from the present moment in all its vitality when we leap aboard expectations and allow them to carry us away. There is a long section...on the unhappiness that comes into our lives thanks to likes and dislikes. These can also bring discomfort to others: 'Even though I have ornaments in my own pond and like them, I dislike other people's lawn ornaments. But now because I am in the Work, when I drive by other people's yards, I try to put my dislike aside and think what affection was active in the person who put the lawn ornaments there. What is it they are trying to share? They obviously like the ornaments and are trying to share that love with me. If I am busy disliking the ornaments, I can't appreciate what the person is trying to share with me'....Rhodes has done us all a real service by putting together this workbook on spiritual progress as something that must grow out of daily practice and concrete intention." - Frederic and Mary Ann Brusset, Spirituality & Health.*

About the Author: For over twenty years, Peter Rhodes has led workshops on spiritual renewal based on the teachings of G.I. Gurdjieff, P.D. Ouspensky, Maurice Nicoll and Emanuel Swedenborg. A retired probations officer, Mr. Rhodes lives in Bryn Athyn, Pennsylvania, and works as a spiritual counselor. His earlier works include Aim and Aim: The Workbook.

LIFE ON OTHER PLANETS

By Emanuel Swedenborg
Translated by John Chadwick
Introduction by Raymond Moody

ISBN 0-87785-320-7. Paperback. 192 pp. October 2006. Swedenborg Foundation. $10.95.

Is there life on other planets? This intriguing question is still being debated in scientific circles, but Emanuel Swedenborg attested that he had actually spoken with spirits from other planets in the afterlife.

Originally published in 1758, this startling book details Swedenborg's conversations with angels unlike any other spirits he encountered in the afterlife. Spirits from Jupiter, Mars, Mercury, Saturn, Venus, and the moon discuss their lives on other planets and how their cultures differed from those of earthly life. Swedenborg also explains why the Lord chose Earth as the planet on which he would be born.

Translated by the late Cambridge scholar John Chadwick and co-published with the Swedenborg Society of London, this volume also offers an introduction by Dr. Raymond Moody, who ruminates on how modern science is validating some of Swedenborg's assertions.

"Life on Other Planets is a new edition of an almost forgotten work by eighteenth-century Swedish scientist/seeker Emanuel Swedenborg in a translation by John Chadwick, the distinguished Cambridge scholar, who was instrumental in deciphering Minoan Linear B. This new edition is further highlighted with an excellent introduction by professor of philosophy/psychiatry Raymond Moody, who brings the book into the contemporary world by offering a new lens through which to see Swedenborg's spiritual travels to other worlds. . . . As such, Moody invites us to transcend Swedenborg as merely a historically important figure and view him as an immediately relevant thinker." - J. Gordon Melton, Director, Institute for the Study of American Religion

Dr. Raymond Moody, the leading authority on the near-death experience, is the author of eleven books, including Life After Life and Reunions. In addition to his writing, Dr. Moody trains medical professionals, including doctors, nurses, and hospice workers, on grief recovery and dying. He was awarded the "World Humanitarian Award" in 1988 and is the founder of the Raymond Moody Institute, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to issues of death and dying and grief recovery.

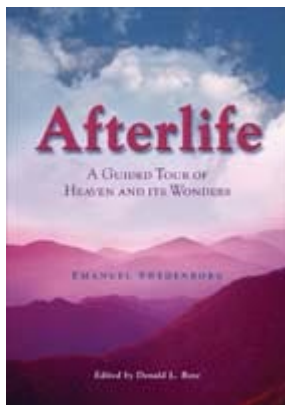

Translator John Chadwick (1920–1998) was the decipherer, along with Michael Ventris, of Linear B, the script of the Mycenaean civilization. For over thirty years, he lectured in classics at Cambridge University, during which time he wrote The Decipherment of Linear B and The Mycenaean World. Mr. Chadwick also translated several of Swedenborg's works for the Swedenborg Society.

AFTERLIFE

A Guided Tour of Heaven and Its Wonders

By Emanuel Swedenborg
Edited by Donald L. Rose

ISBN 0-87785-319-3. Paperback. 160 pp. October 2006. Swedenborg Foundation. $12.95.

Swedenborg's best-known work, Heaven and Hell, has fascinated readers since its first publication in 1758. Through his spiritual journeys, Swedenborg witnessed the true nature of life in the next world and reported in intricate detail about the lives of angels, devils, and newly arrived spirits.

Donald L. Rose presents an edited version of Heaven and Hell, containing only passages from the original that describe the awakening of the soul in the afterlife, the joys and pleasures of heaven, and the chaos and threats of hell. Travel with a spirit as he awakens from death to begin the true adventure of a lifetime: learning about the nature of the afterlife, searching for an eternal home, finding an everlasting vocation, and mating for eternity. Visit the dwellings of angels and find out how they dress and what they do. Finally, learn why a soul might choose a life of deprivation and power struggles in hell over a life of useful service and community in heaven.

Begin the adventure now, so you'll be prepared for what lies ahead!

"...the best introduction to Swedenborg because it has the quality of a compressed image of all his theological works." - Colin Wilson, author of The Outsider and Atlantis and the Kingdom of the Neanderthals.

"...a cartography of the inner realms unsurpassed and rarely equaled by any voyager to these other worlds before or since." - Gary Lachman, author of A Dark Muse: A History of the Occult and A Secret History of Consciousness.

"Swedenborg makes the future life not only conceivable but desirable." - Helen Keller, author of Light in My Darkness and My Life.

TRUE CHRISTIANITY

By Emanuel Swedenborg
Translated by Jonathan S. Rose

ISBN 0-87785-485-8. Paperback. 784 pp. March 2006. Swedenborg Foundation. $15.00.

A completely new, annotated, scholarly translation of the most recent volume in the New Century Edition of the Works of Emanuel Swedenborg. Introduction by R. Guy Erwin. True Christianity presents a satisfying and sensible alternative to mainstream Christianity. The last book published by Emanuel Swedenborg, it serves as both the keystone in the architecture of his theology and the summary of his far-reaching psychological insights.

This volume, the first of two, provides unique and satisfying answers to humankind's perennial questions about the nature of God and about Jesus—not only what his purpose was and how he fulfilled it, but why his life and death are still relevant to us now. As Swedenborg's crowning achievement, True Christianity is unique. Its revolutionary exploration of spiritual topics is presented in a luminously clear and ordered style, bolstered with a wealth of biblical quotations; yet interwoven into its careful structure is an unprecedented abundance of humor, imagery, analogies, and accounts of Swedenborg's experiences in the spiritual world. True Christianity presents a sensible and satisfying alternative to mainstream Christianity.

This work is also available in hardcover.

"This freshly translated work is of the most profound significance for anyone interested in understanding Swedenborg's thought. In my judgment, it is essential for both students and scholars, who will find it both a fascinating read and an invaluable addition to the field. The comprehensive and illuminating preface, introduction, and notes bring new insights to the text and its contents; they are truly distinctive contributions that make this edition of True Christianity a must for any good library." - Dr. Antoine Faivre, professor emeritus of History of Esoteric and Mystical Currents in Modern and Contemporary Europe, Sorbonne.

"True Christianity is the capstone of Swedenborg's thought and probably the best summation of his theology. It is invaluable for understanding the deeper meaning of Christianity. This new version, the best ever produced, presents this magisterial work with clarity and grace. The notes and introduction are not only helpful but fascinating." - Richard Smoley, author of Inner Christianity: A Guide to the Esoteric Tradition and Forbidden Faith: The Gnostic Legacy.

Tales of Heroes and Angels

By Robert Tabor

ISBN 0976002701. Hardcover. 174 pp. 2005. Siena Books. $21.95.

"He lay sick and exhausted on the cabin floor as the hurricane-driven waves poured through the hatch door...The aviator fell into a deep sleep while flying solo across the Atlantic Ocean...The pod of whales tore out the 3,000-lb. keel of the ship. She sank in 60 seconds..."

These are a few of the stories in this remarkable retelling of some of the world's great adventures. Adventures where men and women have survived in spite of facing certain tragedy or even death.

From the title, Tales of Heroes and Angels, one might expect these stories of survival and great accomplishment to be filled with many references to the Almighty, God, and supernatural beings, but there are none. Most of these stories are related as fact and are historically proven. It is left to the reader to explain the incidents that the authors cannot.

Only one, a man named Lalibella, vowed that angels gave him the secret for building six-story solid rock churches which could not be seen from a block away and consequently could not be destroyed by the invading Muslims a thousand years later. Here, too, you will find other legends of truck drivers, Indian fighters and Great White Horses, but the stories the men themselves have written in their biographies are the ones that you will remember and think about more often. Such as Bill Bass, the oldest man to have climbed Mt. Everest at the time, alone, exhausted, with no oxygen and up to his waist in snow. He was going to die. But he didn't.

The author hopes that you too will realize you are never alone, which will help you to cope with your daily life more successfully and perhaps accomplish the seemingly impossible.

"I truly enjoyed all the stories – they are all fascinating!" - Hart Stephenson, 7th.-grade English teacher.

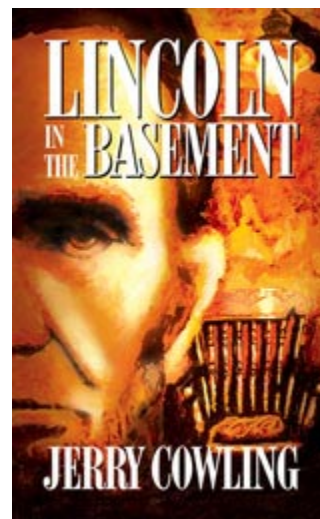

"Original! Always something new, something I didn't know." - Wilma Cowles, 90-year-old matron.

About the Author: Now retired from a career in advertising and theatre management, Robert Tabor lives in Florida. His first book, Downstream, was a canoeing and rafting guide to Florida's many rivers and freshwater springs.

Lincoln in the Basement

By Jerry Cowling

ISBN 1589822684. Softcover. 308 pp. 2005. American Book Publishing. $22.00.

The year is 1862. President Lincoln and his wife are kidnapped by Secretary of State Edwin Stanton, imprisoned in the White House basement, and replaced by doppelgangers.

What would have been the repercussions of such a bizarre—and yet, as described by novelist Jerry Cowling, plausible—alternative development in American history?

The answer: Political intrigue, fueled by arrogance and lust for power, propel a Civil War nightmare. Historical reality is twisted into an emotional and dramatic allegory drawn from today's international headlines.

No one will finish this novel without forever wondering who actually makes the decisions coming from the White House: the person we call the president, or some shadowy figure lurking in the background?

"Sure to provoke controversy, Cowling's intriguing Civil War tale of a Lincoln doppelganger is set in a skillfully described wartime White House, populated with engagingly drawn characters drawn by Edwin Stanton into a scenario of 'what-might-have-been.'" - David Cleutz, author, War & Redemption-A Civil War.

"Lincoln in the Basement is intelligently written and psychologically insightful with good character development. A great combination of the historical and fanciful. Both emotional and thought-provoking." - Jaclyn Lurker, author, Cryer's Valley.

About the Author: Born in the North Central Texas town of Gainesville, Jerry Cowling grew up with a taste for history as romance, from fantasizing about finding the lost cache of stolen gold hidden by Old West outlaw Sam Bass, to empathizing with a Roman child experiencing the eruption of Mount Vesuvius at Pompeii. A graduate of East Texas State University with degrees in Journalism and English, he spent ten years working for newspapers from Kingsport, Tennessee, to Dallas, Killeen and Temple, Texas. Lincoln in the Basement is his first published novel. He has had a play published by Eldridge Publishing Company, Tallahassee, Florida, and has written several other plays which have received productions and staged readings in Oregon, California, Texas and Florida.

THE SOVEREIGN SOUL Sufism: A Path for Today

By Phillip Gowins

ISBN 978-1-892138-10-1. Paperback. Preface. 224 pp. July 2006. New Paradigm Books. $16.95.

The aim of the 1,500-year-old spiritual tradition of Sufism, it has been said, is "the elimination of all veils between man and God." In June 2004, Sufi Master Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan died peacefully at his home in Paris, France. As leader of the Sufi Order International which first brought Sufism to the West in 1910, Pir Vilayat had spent more than 40 years teaching this and other truths of Sufism to audiences in the U.S., Europe and Asia.

For 25 years, Sufi teacher Phillip Gowins was able to take advantage of the many visits of Pir Vilayat to the New York area of the U.S. Thus The Sovereign Soul: Sufism: A Path for Today is a homage to the Master, providing as it does an introduction to the ancient stream of wisdom embodied by Sufism, but present in other religions and humanistic philosophies as well, that Pir Vilayat was able to impart to students around the world.

The Sovereign Soul is also a description, always concrete, often humorous, of the mystical path that Phillip Gowins himself has pursued over the years. With many examples and exercises, he shows us how we can practice the spiritual life ourselves. The path he lays out is strewn with pitfalls and pleasures alike. He tells us how we can avoid the one and enjoy the other, and attain to love and self-mastery in the increasingly complex 21st century.

From the Preface by Debra Bunch Ghosh (Abi-Ru Shirzan):

Sufis tend to emphasize that, as a form of communication, words are too limited to have great value. Even Rumi, the prolific poet, whose 30,000 verses top American bestseller lists 750 years after his death, scoffed at the ability of words to convey 'that Reality.' A Sufi book, then, is something of a paradox. It is a collection of words about something that cannot be conveyed in words. Phillip Gowins, in this insightful personal narrative, acknowledges as much, more than once.

Why read it, then? Rumi, asked a similar question, replied, 'Words set you searching. They are not the objects of your quest.... Words are like glimpsing movement far in the distance. You start in that direction to see better.' And so, in reading the words that follow, you set your feet on a trail.

Just the act of picking up this book and glancing at it suggests you are a seeker. You may have been intrigued by its title and wanted to know more. You may even have heard about Sufis and wondered who they are...

As For Tomorrow, I Cannot Say

33 Years with Multiple Sclerosis

By Diana Neutze

A joint publication of New Paradigm Books and Hazard Press, New Zealand <<http://www.hazard.co.nz>>. ISBN 1877270172 (N.Z.). ISBN 1892138069 (U.S.). Paper. 104 pp. February 2002 (U.S.). $13.95.

New Zealand poet Diana Neutze was in her late 20's, living in London with her husband and young son, when she discovered that she had multiple sclerosis. More than three decades later, wheelchair-bound and largely confined to her Christchurch home, she has told her remarkable story. Fiercely independent and passionately determined, she has fought the illness with every psychological and physical weapon in her armory. As For Tomorrow, I Cannot Say is a tribute to the power of the human spirit.

"I am recommending it to young doctors because it contains insights into managing multiple sclerosis that they will not find in their textbooks." - Jon Simcock, M.D., Neurological Foundation of New Zealand, Auckland

"It's difficult to write of your own misfortunes without self-pity. It's also difficult to live with long illness without becoming self-centered. Diana Neutze's autobiography of multiple sclerosis, though, shows that both are possible. Neutze is a New Zealand poet and historian, who contracted MS in her 20s but who managed to teach at university, publish several books and travel overseas, in spite of continually having to adjust to physical degeneration. Given the unforgiving nature of her disease, Neutze's achievements show admirable strength of character, but read her book and you'll quickly realize that, even better, her outlook is suffused with humour (often directed at her predicament) and an abiding interest in other people. This humility lifts Neutze's book from being a mere chronicle of an illness into a manifesto of spunk. As a chronicle, it is successful enough. Indeed, it illuminates the inner and outer lives of the multiple sclerosis victim with sensitivity and perception. Reading it, I felt privileged to be admitted to her private world, and grateful for her insights into life with a severe disability. It is attractively written, witty, interesting, and sprinkled with poetry—which makes a successful book by anyone's standards. But the best thing about this little book is that "victim" isn't part of Neutze's vocabulary. By the time you've finished it, you won't be surprised to learn that the manuscript was typed with only one finger in a single month!" - Wanganui Newspapers, N.Z., April 23, 2002.

"This book is a revelation and an inspiration...[It] deserves to remain in print forever, as a classic resource." - Quality Web Content. - "A story of courage, determination and extraordinary creativity." - Helen J. O'Neill, TAKAHE Literary Magazine.
