The New Dictionary of Spiritual Thought

By Rev. Carol E. Parrish-Harra, Ph.D.

ISBN #: 0-945027-22-2. 368 pp. Paperback. Illustrated. $25.95. Sparrow Hawk Press. 1994. Revised 2002.

This new dictionary, triple the size of the first edition, does much more than contain definitions of over 3,000 of the world's most important esoteric and spiritual concepts. It enlightens its user with the concepts and mythology that gave rise to these terms. Over 90 biographies feature personalities who have made remarkable contributions to the mystery tradition. Significant illustrations, symbols, and glyphs increase understanding. A special section describes a contemporary mystery school now accepting students. Use this book as your faithful companion as you progress along the Path. You will find it an indispensable key to understanding the esoteric wisdom of the ancients.

Prepared by the highly respected mystic and Sancta Sophia Seminary Dean Carol E. Parrish-Harra, this exceptional compendium is the result of the author's nearly 45-year pursuit of the ageless wisdom teachings. This search has led her to a guru high in the Himalayas, to sacred sites in Peru, across the former U.S.S.R., to Egypt, the Orient, the Gobi Desert for Wesak, and to the Yucatan and Guatemala for study of the Mayan culture under the tutelage of the wisdomkeeper Hunbatz Men whose lineage predates Columbus. Her pilgrimage to Turkey with its rich heritage of early Christianity, of twelve to seventeen early civilizations, and of Islam, adds dimension to help integrate early Western wisdom for the benefit of all humanity.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dr. Parrish-Harra is a popular lecturer across the U.S. and in many countries, most often in the U.S., Russia, and now Turkey and the British Isles. In 1981 she established a spiritual community in the foothills of the Ozark Mountains near Tahlequah, Oklahoma, which includes the campus of Sancta Sophia Seminary where she works tirelessly to disseminate the practical and enduring wisdom of the ancient teachings.

Sophia Sutras: Introducing Mother Wisdom

By Rev. Carol E. Parrish-Harra, Ph.D.

ISBN # 0-945-027-257. 290 pp. Paperback. Illustrated. Sparrow Hawk Press. August 2008. $24.95.

Sparrow Hawk Press is thrilled to announce the release of their next bestseller: Sophia Sutras: Introducing Mother Wisdom, by Rev. Carol E. Parrish-Harra, Ph.D. In her latest work, Parrish-Harra anticipates the current fascination with Sophia (The Da Vinci Code, etc.) as she distills centuries-worth of spiritual wisdom into one remarkable, accessible volume. Three years in the making, Sophia Sutras is the culmination of a lifetime of experience living, studying, and teaching students how to access the divine feminine. Drawing on the insight of a multiplicity of thinkers and traditions, Rev. Parrish-Harra succeeds in tying them together with the thread of their origins: Sophia herself.

Read The Sophia Sutras and you will be amazed to discover the Apostle John and psychologist Carl Jung both describing that "hidden intelligence of Sophia hard at work, out of sight, evolving humankind." Sophia Sutras is a book intimately concerned with the struggle being played out within humanity—and writ large in world events—between force and freedom, judgment and understanding, despair and hope. It is an insightful description of the choices facing all people and all genders, as well as a prescription for steps along the shortest road to personal and planetary transformation. Sophia Sutras is a lifetime of bold spiritual adventure condensed into one accessible volume.

"We just finished our Book Study on Sophia Sutras: Introducing Mother Wisdom by Rev. Carol E. Parrish. This was a beautiful and inspiring book...a must read for anyone interested in the Divine Feminine and Esoteric Christianity." - Rev. Tom Simota, Celestial Light Circle, St. Paul, MN.

MESSENGERS OF HOPE

The Walk-In Phenomenon

By Rev. Carol E. Parrish-Harra, Ph.D.

ISBN # 0945-027-192. 279 pp. Paperback. Illustrated. $19.95. Sparrow Hawk Press. 1983. Revised and Expanded 2001.

When Carol Parrish-Harra nearly died at age 23, she awoke knowing she was not the same person. She would discover gradually the meaning of soul exchange.

This inside story of a Walk-in—introduced to the public by Ruth Montgomery in Threshold to Tomorrow—unveils the inner process preparing the personality to serve in a destiny little understood but spiritually rich. Additional insights are revealed regarding the roles that presently incarnating angelic and spacial beings play as they assist humanity in shaping the future. As planetary life faces the changing of the ages, global challenges, and planetary changes, new importance is given to group consciousness and the role of community. Messengers are to be heard.

“Carol Parrish has come to a deep understanding of the meaning of her own near-death experience through a process of personal maturation which has led her to reflect upon its broader significance for all humanity. . . . Carol’s conclusion comes out of the matrix of her own life; mine derives from my research data, but on this matter we speak as though with a common voice.”—Kenneth Ring, author, Heading Toward Omega and Lessons from the Light.

“A BEACON OF HOPE. Reading Messengers of Hope confirmed what I knew when I met the author for the first time: this was a woman of power and wisdom, bold enough to speak openly about difficult, personal matters. Carol Parrish-Harra brings a simple honesty to a forward-looking spirituality, making her search for understanding relevant to us all. I recommend it to anyone who has had a near-death experience, and felt ‘different’ afterwards. I recommend it to all who want an up-close view of what it feels like to chart new pathways of spirituality in America.” - Filer Donovan, AMAZON.COM.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Carol E. Parrish-Harra, PhD. is the academic dean of Sancta Sophis Seminary located at Sparrow Hawk Village in the Ozark Mountains near Tahlequah, Oklahoma. A school of Ageless Wisdom, it offers ordination as well as graduate Masters and Doctoral Degrees. Dr. Parrish leads many spiritual retreats worldwide, and is a frequently-sought lecturer on many subjects, including esoteric thought.

The Artist and the Alien

By Dena Blatt

The Nephilim and the Pyramid of the Apocalypse

By Patrick Heron

ISBN # 1432712853. Paperback. 268 pp. Artwork by Shirlè Klein-Carsh. $21.95. Outskirts Press. September 2007.

The Artist and the Alien: Guidance, Warnings, and Hope from an ET Living Among Us is a true story. It begins with a “teacher” from the planet Sirius who has lessons for us all. In 1970, the alien, “Frank,” operating under the guise of an electronics repairman, selects an artist to paint a series of paintings depicting past civilizations that have destroyed themselves. The painter is Shirlè Klein-Carsh, a Canadian woman who grew up feeling “different.” For two years, Frank guides Shirlè in her psychological, spiritual and artistic development. The message that emerges from the paintings is that of our need for compassion. It is a message of hope, and one that Shirlè will have to convey with urgency to people when, as seems likely, our Earth goes through calamitous changes involved with the “shift” from third to fourth and fifth dimensions.

When Frank leaves Earth, he gives Shirlè various artifacts, including eight copper plates inscribed with his alien writing. Shirlè and her art will be forever changed—and so will the reader of The Artist and the Alien.

“...a broad encompassing tale of human spiritual awakening, bringing the reader a wide range of important metaphysics.” - Scott Mandelker, Ph.D, author, From Elsewhere: Being ET in America and Universal Vision.

“A fascinating study of someone with sensitivities hardly dreamed of by most persons...goes straight into the mystery and wonder of the human-alien contact.” - Tim Conway, Ph.D, author, Women of Power and Grace.

“Following the remarkable story of Shirlè Klein...the author gives a concise review of UFO literature, presenting the reader not only with the apparent metaphysical-alien connection, but with some important psychological, political and spiritual implications of the phenomenon that concern us personally.” - R. Leo Sprinkle, Ph.D, Professor Emeritus, Counseling Services, University of Wyoming, author, Soul Samples.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dena Blatt was born in Canada and immigrated to California at age 24. She has been a medical technology lab head, an electronics business owner, a Holocaust researcher and journalist, and a graphoanalyst with her own “Dear Dena” column. Her lifelong interest in the paranormal and ETs reached critical mass in 1996 when she met Shirlè Klein-Carsh (for information about Shirlè, go to <<http://www.nsartists.ca/shirlekleincarsh>>). The Artist and the Alien is Dena’s first book.

ISBN # 0806528109. Paperback. 241 pp. $13.95. Patrick Heron Publishing. January 2007. No. 1 bestseller in the Prophecy category on AMAZON.COM for almost two years.

GIANTS AMONG MEN. They appear in the first pages of the Bible: sons of God who coupled with mere mortals before and after the Flood. They are the fallen angels, and their children—the Nephilim—are the true builders of the pyramids and the other great monuments of ancient history.

THE TRUTH BEHIND THE MYTH. The author examines ancient texts from Genesis to Enoch to Revelations to once and for all establish the true identity of this mysterious lost race of giant beings. Are they angels? Genetic monsters? Are they characters of myth and fable? Are they still among us? Within these pages lie the answers to these questions.

SOLVING THE RIDDLE OF THE PYRAMIDS. The author’s astonishing findings address the importance of the pyramid shape and its evil aim of supplanting the City of God. The riddle solved, Heron illuminates the significance of the pyramids in helping us navigate the coming Apocalypse.

“For fascinating research regarding the pyramids of Egypt and the Nephilim of Genesis, Patrick Heron’s book stands supreme.” Dr. I.D.E. Thomas, author, The Omega Conspiracy.

“Stole my interest and never let it go....carefully walks each reader through the origin of the Nephilim and their role in history.” - J. Ryll, Orlando, FL.

“One of the few non-fiction books based on biblical, historical and academic sources in Egyptology and Greek mythology that I would classify as a thriller....It is too interesting to pass by.” - Stephen Spencer, Ohio, U.S.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Patrick Heron was born in Dublin in 1952 and holds a B.S. and M.A. in Business Studies from Trinity College, Dublin. At the age of 24, he began a Christian walk following an epiphany he experienced while reading the Bible. In 1997, having become interested in Bible prophecy concerning the “end times,” Patrick published his first bestselling book, Apocalypse Soon. He lives in Dublin with his family.

Miracles Only Come in One Size

By Lois A. Enochs

ISBN # 9787600130649. Paperback. 158 pp. Insight Publishing. $16.95. February 2007.

Miracles Only Come in One Size has a unique way of informing readers about their personal creative power. Through her own amazing experiences, the author conveys the truth that indeed anyone can create and experience everyday miracles. These experiences include a near-death episode, an apparent visit by an angel, and finding the perfect home or work situation. They reveal miraculous outcomes in situations we all encounter on a regular basis.

These true accounts (intertwined with the Universal Laws that brought them about) create a very readable combination of stories and how-to's. They aptly reveal how our thoughts, words, and behavior create our every circumstance—intentionally or unintentionally.

This book won't leave you thinking, "Why don't things like that happen to me?" You will be saying, "I can do that!"

"A fantastic read!" - Catherine Ponder, author, Dynamic Laws of Prosperity.

"As the science of medicine is growing more sophisticated, we're learning that the unseen world around us and within us has great importance to our healing. In this book, Lois Enochs gives us examples and tools from her life so we can access this healing power. This information is important as we move towards true healing." - Gladys McGarey, M.D.(H), recognized as the mother of holistic medicine, author, Born to Live.

"Having known Lois Enochs for more than twenty years and sharing so many of her experiences, it is a joy for me that she is sharing those experiences with others. I have always felt as if she could write in a way to reach individuals that would give them insights into their own spiritual paths and journeys. It is done." - Karen Fletcher, psychic and medium.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Born and raised in Greenville, Ohio, Lois A. Enochs has also lived and worked in Europe, Texas and Arizona. She has been a federal employee, a corporate executive, and a photographer, and many experiences have crossed her path—some ordinary, many extraordinary. Through the years, her interesting and varied experiences have provided evidence of unseen power and become the proof of what she has come to know as Universal Truths. Lois currently resides in Phoenix, Arizona.

NOSTRADAMUS' DREAM BOOK of SLEEP, SCIENCE and the SPIRITUAL (the COSMOS, the PSYCHE and YOUR FUTURE): The book that shows that our Fate DOES lie in the Stars, as Revealed in Our Dreams

ISBN # 09686022-1-5. Hardcover. 261 pp. 8" x 5.25." Special 500th Anniversary Edition. Vasitha. July 2003. $20.00.

The author writes:

"In this book we explore the interplay between sleep, dreams and Nostradamus.

"We explore how scientists have explained the basic and essential human necessities known as 'sleeping' and 'dreaming.'

"Since everything that exists has more than one aspect to be considered in getting to the bottom of its nature, may I be YOUR guide to understanding, from a spiritual point of view, the concept of Sleep/Dreams?

"What you read in my book is based not on my imagination, but on Creation's Fundamental Law of 'Cause and Effect.' According to Nostradamus, these Fundamental Laws determine events here on earth and shape our individual life and future.

"Understanding these Laws will open the door to an extraordinary journey into YOUR mind and soul as well as into the meaning of life on earth itself. The overall picture emerging from daytime (conscious) and nighttime (subconscious) activity will bring home to you important and powerful enlightenment as regards the essentially invisible, but so effective, period we call 'sleep.' It will lead to an understanding of the pulsing power of the radiation that holds the universe, Earth and human beings together in a harmonious whole. It will serve as a testament to your fundamental inner core, to your Soul/Spirit—to the force that drives you to take charge of your destiny and that changes your life forever."

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Dietlinde (Dita) Arzt was born in Sudetenland (Bohemia). Destiny brought her to Canada in 1969, where she held a position as vice-president in an international cosmetic company for over 25 years. Recently retired, she decided to revive her inherited Nostradamus Egyptian Dream Book. She says: "I am privileged to have preserved from extinction the lost and rediscovered Dream Interpretation Guide of Nostradamus. I am sharing the last remaining copy with the world."

A Matter of Destiny

By Nancy Williams

STRANGE DAYS INDEED: Memories of the Old World

By Stuart Ward

ISBN # 978-0-61517-632-1. Paperback. 269 pp. Springflower Publishing. April 2007. $17.99.

What would you do if you found that the U.S. Department of Energy had created a weapon that could destroy the world—and you were the only one who could stop it? Destin Campbell, a P.R. man with Lockheed-Martin Corp. in Florida, faces that dilemma when he looks into the murder of his best friend. Why is the DOE trying to suppress the truth? Could there be an otherworldly connection? Destin finds he cannot fight the entire government alone, so he turns for help to a diverse group of strangers. They include a firefighter, a forensics specialist, a biologist, three teenagers, an anthropologist/linguist, a scientist in quantum energy research, and a hip truck driver. They're all drawn together as a team in North Carolina and committed to uncovering the DOE's deadly cover-up.

A fast-moving spy novel, A Matter of Destiny breaks new ground in its exploration of what an alien visit to planet Earth may mean for humankind's future in our galaxy. Williams addresses a question that should have been raised decades ago: Are we alone, and if not, what is the relationship between man and alien civilizations?

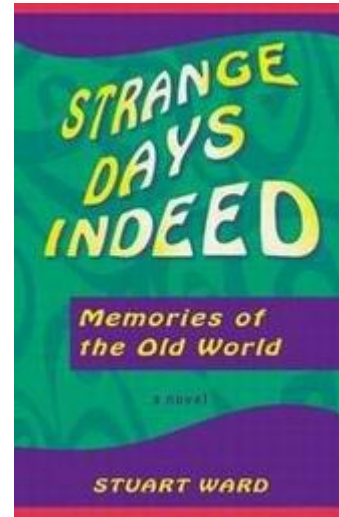

"A 'must' read for anyone with a modicum of concern for man's future." - Peter Davenport, Director, National UFO Reporting Center.

"Here's a book that will keep you awake. Your only question: 'Should I watch my back or the skies?'...I strongly recommend this book." - Joan Upton Hall, author, Arturo Del Ray series, Roam with Joan.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Born in Seattle, WA, Nancy Williams holds a B.A. in Anthropology from the U. of Central Florida and an M.S. in English from Nova Southeastern U. She has taught writing and literature in public education and community colleges. A published poet now working on her second novel, The Agenda 21 Conspiracy, she holds the highest level of amateur radio license issued by the FCC. At the U.S. Southeastern Writers Association Conference, held June 15-19, 2008, Williams captured six top fiction writing awards for her short story, "A Very Basic Christmas." Her article, "Is Bern's New Particle Accelerator a Doomsday Machine?" will be published in Atlantis Rising # 71. She lives in Chattanooga, TN.

Imagine a planet at peace: no war, no separation; universal respect for all living things.

The new novel Strange Days Indeed paints such a picture—with a twist: the whimsical memoir writer is gazing back from enlightened 2061 future times to our present, explaining to new generations how we lived and why we'd choose to live that way. In particular, he's focusing on the unlikely history and current morphing of two age-old, by-then-archaic customs: COMPULSORY DRESS & CRUEL DIET.

Who hasn't ever imagined how nice it'd be if we didn't always have to wear clothes? Or finds it barbaric the way lives of millions of animals are taken every day to become dubious food for humans?

"Advocates of body freedom and natural diet must've at times felt like they were stranded on some strange flesh eating, textile obsessed planet." So writes Zet Quimby, eccentric 112-year-old, in his memoir somehow teleported back to our time. After 2012, critical earth changes and a quantum leap in spiritual awareness have transformed life as we know it. In telling how improbably we lived in times he, too, weathered, Zet recounts his quest for self as affected by our erstwhile customs of always keeping covered and devouring fellow sentient species, while tracing modern roots of nudism and sixties' counterculture values to early 1900's Germany. Perhaps not surprisingly, new generations view our era as most peculiar.

"...Quimby's take on his own experiences...is astute, wryly humorous and often laugh out loud funny...The book is much more than a polemic for the naturist movement." - Sibyl Walski, newspaper book reviewer.

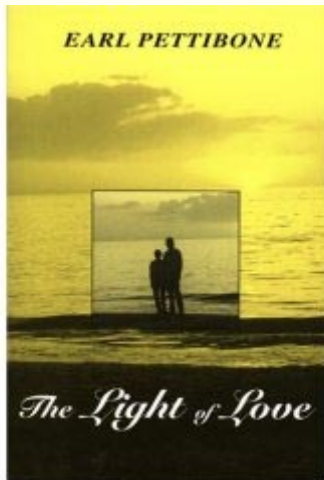

"...an enlightening story that creatively promotes a more aware and compassionate way of living." - Will Tuttle, author of The World Peace Diet: Eating for Spiritual Health and Social Harmony.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: A native San Franciscan, Stuart R. Ward came of age to the sixties' Haight-Ashbury counterculture, soaking up its core values to become a life-long vegetarian (recently vegan) and body freedom enthusiast. In 1980 he hand-built a solar-powered cabin in the foothills of Mount Shasta, California, where he continues to live and write.

THE LIGHT OF LOVE

By Earl Pettibone

ISBN # 978-0-533-15758-7. Paperback. 208 pp. February 2008. Vantage Press. $12.95.

In 1969, Earl Pettibone picked up a book entitled The Sleeping Prophet, the story of Edgar Cayce. Instantly, he was hooked, and went on to read all of Cayce's spiritual writings. These writings started him on a long journey down the path of spiritual discovery. In 1972 Mr. Pettibone was shown the book entitled Autobiography of a Yoga by Paramahansa Yogananda, purchased it and immediately joined Self Realization Fellowship. After six years of study, he met his soul mate, Patricia. What happened next was inconceivable. First, she was visited by a being "from the other side." Then, those "on the other side" started speaking through Patricia. Mr. Pettibone daily recorded these messages which included subjects such as Light, Darkness, Good, Evil, auras, souls traveling in groups, The Council, details of their past lifetimes and predictions of the future. In 1979 Patricia began receiving messages through automatic writings from those "on the other side," including Socrates, Simon Peter, Jesuivit, Divine Mother Mary and many others. In 1980 Earl and Patricia visited the countries where they had lived in past lifetimes.

The Light of Love is the chronicle of two fascinating people, their individual backgrounds, their preordained meeting, and the world-shaking events from 1978 to 1980 that were "unbelievable." In the final chapters, information is given that the reader will find nowhere else. This includes God's creation, Jesuivit's family, events after Jesuivit was crucified, and religions.

The Light of Love is an intimate memoir, a spiritual odyssey, and a moving love story wrapped in a fascinating account of psychic phenomena and inexplicable occurrences. It is a true story written by the man who experienced it.

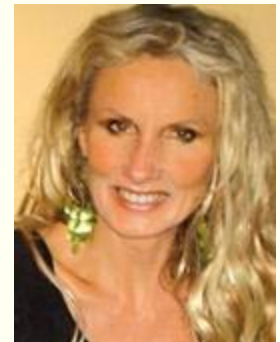

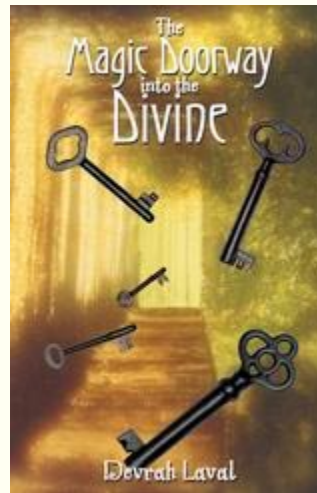

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Earl Pettibone was born in Spokane, Washington. He attended West Point, earning his B.S. degree, and has taken graduate courses at Santa Clara University toward a Master's of Engineering degree. Mr. Pettibone served in the U.S. Army with the 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Kentucky, has owned several companies and held many positions with other firms. He has lived and worked in ten different states.

The Magic Doorway into the Divine

By Devrah Laval

ISBN # 9780978498603.
Softcover. 394 pp.
Mystic Lights. $18.95.
December 2007.

Twenty-five years ago, at age 21, Devrah Laval—master counselor, facilitator, and author of The Magic Doorway Into the Divine—had a life-altering mystical experience along with a profound physical healing that awakened her to her own true nature.

Since that time, Devrah has facilitated groups and individuals to help them more fully realize the potential of their own radiant Self.

In this long-awaited offering, Devrah's open heart of immense knowing and compassion is freely shared with those eager to experience the journey home: to their own heart of knowing and timeless fulfillment—the place where all doubts dissolve into Love and rest in the sanctuary of the Self. What is unique in Devrah's account is that she doesn't simply describe her own spiritual experiences, but engenders in the reader the capacity of experiencing his or her own awakening. In this sense, her book operates as a catalyst for the process, and has been referred to as a "road map of the spiritual journey."

"...The Magic Doorway into the Divine rises above the rest [of books and groups purporting to offer guidance] because of its simplicity, its honesty, and, most important of all, because of its capacity to empower seekers to trust their own relationship with the Divine....invites readers to experience their own mystical natures initially without intermediaries." - Synchronicity, December-January 2007-2008.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: At an earlier stage in her life, Vancouver, B.C.-based Devrah Laval was a model with many opportunities opening out before her, including taking part in a leading Canadian TV news show and being spokesperson for a leading international soft drink manufacturer. All this changed when Devrah underwent a profound and transformative personal experience that culminated in a miraculous healing. Thereafter she sought to deepen that experience and integrate it into her everyday life, her intention being to ultimately be of service to others. In the years to come, Devrah studied with many spiritual masters. One of those masters whom she studied with for over 17 years, was the same guru described in the international bestseller Eat, Pray, Love by Elizabeth Gilbert. As Devrah continued her studies, people naturally gravitated to her for guidance, counselling and inspiration. Now she has been a teacher, facilitator of workshops and spiritual counsellor for over 20 years.

Planet X Forecast and 2012 Survival Guide

By Jacco van der Worp, MSc, Marshall Masters and Janice Manning

“Chance favors the prepared mind.” - Louis Pasteur

ISBN: 1597720755. Paperback. 312 pp. 12 ill. November 2007 (2nd edition). Your Own World Books. $19.95.

What is Planet X? It could be a comet, rogue planet, or, as this book maintains, a dying brown dwarf companion to Sol. In the years to come, its elliptical orbit will bring it into the core of our system, where it will enrage our sun. Once that happens, Earth's greatest pains will come the moment fate puts us in the cross-hairs of a perfect solar storm. The purpose of this book is to help those who now agree that time is of the essence. It does this by offering a practical 2012 tool kit of how-to survival knowledge for those who'll be left to fend for themselves.

“A tour-de-force Planet X-2012 page turner. Required reading for those who get it and want to live through it.” - Echan Deravy, author, Solar Code.

“Written in an easy-to-read style that honors the 2012 predictions of the Maya.” - Maya anthropologist George Erikson, author, Atlantis in America.

Earth 2012 The Ultimate Quest

How to Find Peace
in a World of Chaos

By Aurora Juliana Ariel, Ph.D.

ISBN # 0981650104.
Softcover. 312 pp.
Aeos. $18.95.
May 2008.

In her groundbreaking, critically acclaimed book, Earth 2012: The Ultimate Quest, Dr. Aurora Juliana Ariel melds powerful psychology, breakthrough healing steps, and scientific predictions to show how our planet is emerging from a Dark Night into consciousness—and how we can individually unlock our potential. Dr. Ariel's revolutionary Counseling Theory and Practice, TheQuest™, distills a powerful subconscious healing process into seven steps that are designed to accelerate personal healing. It is a remedy—and it is real. Compulsive shoppers, alcoholics, and those working off an old (and damaging) script have used TheQuest™ to self heal by reprogramming the subconscious.

TheQuest™ is part of a bigger picture, however. Drawing on parable and historical references, Earth 2012 is a concise guide that carefully outlines the path to internal peace, but also explains the incredible passage humankind is in—an amazing time period in which an entirely new culture is emerging en masse.

“...can take humanity through a quantum leap into a future Eden...” - John Gray, author, Men Are from Mars, Women Are from Venus.

“I am excited to see the powerful ramifications this book will have on people around the world.” - Jack Canfield, co-author, Chicken Soup for the Soul series.

“This powerful, practical book will guide you through one of the most challenging periods of our collective history. Read it, please!” - Harold H. Bloomfield, MD, author, Making Peace with Your Past. -

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Aurora Juliana Ariel, Ph.D., CEO and founder of AEOS, holds over 35 certificates and degrees in advanced healing methods and a BA, MA, and Ph.D in psychology. Her discoveries led to the development of her Counseling Theory and Healing Practice, TheQuest™, and the founding of the Institute of Advanced Healing, through which she trains Quest Counselors, many of which plan to set up chapters in their respective countries. Earth 2012: The Ultimate Quest is the first in a series and was released with Dr. Ariel's first solo music CD, Renaissance of Grace.

The Reality of Time

By Janet Iris Sussman

ISBN 0-9643535-0-2. Paperback. 376 pp. January 2005. Time Portal Publications. $17.95.

This finely crafted work draws the reader into an experiential, wholly original perspective on the nature of time and human awareness. Physics readers will marvel at how quantum mechanics can be elucidated from the inside out. Readers interested in the study of consciousness will begin to understand the importance of time to the unfoldment of unity consciousness and self-realization. Most people think of time simply as a passive, mechanical tool for measuring reality. The new idea introduced here is that time is a dynamic field responsible for creating the material universe. The Reality of Time seeks to explain that inner reality.

“Once in a long while a book comes along that has the capacity to turn the page on what we thought of as ‘reality.’ One enters into a dimension that transcends the usual language, the cadences of ordinary thought. But the effort yields extraordinary treasures. One is introduced to a reality larger than one’s aspiration, more potent than all one’s dreams.” - Jean Houston.

“Janet Sussman has written two deeply intuitive, highly metaphorical, and overwhelmingly intellectual descriptions of what I believe is the nature of time. She relates time to a sacred dimension of existence that few of us have access to. She has made the brave attempt to describe the indescribable as St. Augustine once realized. However, readers should be prepared to use their thinking caps when reading this.” - Fred Alan Wolf, Ph.D., National Book Award-winning author of Taking the Quantum Leap and many other books.

*“Janet Sussman possesses an uncanny grasp of a broad range of important concepts of science and metaphysics, as well as an unsurpassed command of the tools of the English language. The rich tapestry of structure and content that she has crafted in The Reality of Time reflects her vast experience in meditative practices, introspection, self-observation, and analysis.”* - Ashish Chatterjee, Ph.D., nuclear theoretical physicist.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Janet Iris Sussman is a writer, musician and intuitive counselor. She has originated higher mental and super-conscious processes that enable students to more clearly perceive the inner mechanics of the human energy system. The yoga of traveling in time has developed through meditative experience and lucid dreaming sequences. Her first book, Timeshift: The Experience of Dimensional Change, is a voyage into the fabric of time that illuminates our consciousness.

THE SOVEREIGN SOUL Sufism: A Path for Today

By Phillip Gowins

ISBN 978-1-892138-10-1. Paperback. Preface. 224 pp. July 2006. New Paradigm Books. $16.95. Volume Two in THE NEWTON SERIES: Ancient Wisdom in the Modern World.

The aim of the 1,500-year-old spiritual tradition of Sufism, it has been said, is "the elimination of all veils between man and God." In June 2004, Sufi Master Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan died peacefully at his home in Paris, France. As leader of the Sufi Order International which first brought Sufism to the West in 1910, Pir Vilayat had spent more than 40 years teaching this and other truths of Sufism to audiences in the U.S., Europe and Asia.

For 25 years, Sufi teacher Phillip Gowins was able to take advantage of the many visits of Pir Vilayat to the New York area. Thus The Sovereign Soul: Sufism: A Path for Today is a homage to the Master, providing as it does an introduction to the ancient stream of wisdom embodied by Sufism, but present in other religions and humanistic philosophies as well, that Pir Vilayat was able to impart to students around the world.

The Sovereign Soul is also a description, always concrete, often humorous, of the mystical path that Phillip Gowins himself has pursued over the years. With many examples and exercises, he shows us how we can practice the spiritual life ourselves. The path he lays out is strewn with pitfalls and pleasures alike. He tells us how we can avoid the one and enjoy the other, and attain to love and self-mastery in the increasingly complex 21st century.

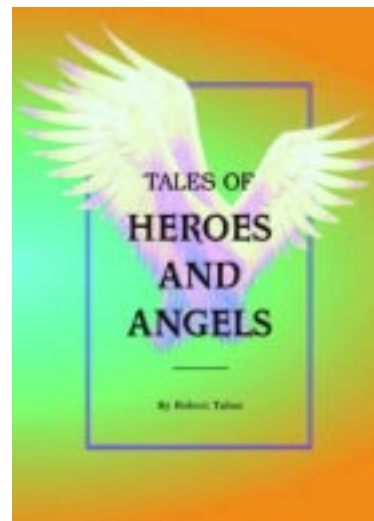

"...provides a great introduction to the Sufi way of thinking and, while it certainly emphasizes the importance of having a personal teacher, its openness to all wisdom paths allows the practices described to be adapted by all on the path to wholeness." - Living Traditions Magazine.

"Blending elements of personal memoir, history, and philosophy into its presentation, The Sovereign Soul discusses how to get oneself on the path, exercise spiritual creativity, embrace love and sacrifice, prepare oneself for death, and much more. An inspirational tour-de-force of the wisdom inherent within Sufi teachings." - Midwest Book Review.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Phillip Gowins was born in Minneapolis, MN, in 1945. He has been a cabinetmaker since 1980. In 1979 he met Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan and shortly thereafter was inducted into the Sufi Order in the West. A teacher in that order, he has conducted numerous workshops with his wife, Majida, who is also a teacher with the Sufi Order in the West.

Tales of Heroes and Angels By Robert Tabor

SIENA BOOKS. ISBN # 0-9760027-0-1. Hardcover. 8-5/8" x 11-1/4." 174 pp. 46 Ill. Oct. 2005. $21.95.

From the Preface: "I began to recall from the biographies of men and women of courage, and exceptional achievement, that at some time in their unique endeavours they were aware of a 'force,' a 'power,' an eminent 'figure' from outside themselves, who intervened to save the person and others with them, from failure, devastation. and sometimes death. Rarely does the phenomenon get more than a mention...because that is not the purpose of the biography. But the author has felt the necessity to acknowledge such 'help,' 'warnings,' or 'guidance'..."

17 luminous tales, some untold till today. Did you know about

The angel who followed Adam and Eve out of the Garden of Eden?

The invisible shield around Gypsy Moth skipper Francis Chichester?

The seagoing fire fighter in the flowing white robes?

The divine visions of King Lalibela of Ethiopia?

The cathedral within a mosque in Cordoba, Spain, and the secret of its weeping angel?

The wife who sped with her baby to see her soldier husband in wartime U.S.A., and the Mack truck and angel that helped her?

Totally Revised and Expanded Version of Conversations with Eternity: The Forgotten Masterpiece of Victor Hugo

VICTOR HUGO'S CONVERSATIONS WITH THE SPIRIT WORLD: A Literary Genius's Hidden Life

By John Chambers

ISBN-13: 978-1-59477-182-8.

ISBN-10: 1-59477-182-0.

Quality Paperback. 384 pp. 9'x 6'.

3 Illustrations. January 2008.

Inner Traditions / Bear & Co./

Imprint: Destiny Books. $18.95.

Victor Hugo's Conversations with the Spirit World covers an up-until-now undocumented part of Victor Hugo's life: August 1853 to December 1855, when, while in political exile on Jersey Island in the English Channel, he participated in numerous "tapping-table" séances.

The many seance transcripts, translated into English for the first time in this book, attest that well over 100 spirits manifested to the author of Les Misérables, his family, and his fellow political exiles. These included shades of the illustrious dead, like Shakespeare and Galileo, and spirits who said they'd never been alive, like the Shadow of the Sepulcher and Death. Aliens from Mercury and Jupiter spoke through the tables, with the Mercurians channeling drawings of themselves. Jesus, during three visits, condemned druidism, faulted Christianity, and suggested a new religion with Hugo as its prophet. The spirit of Mozart, using a real piano, struggled to compose a symphony. Led by "Balaam's Ass," the spirits set forth for the seance attendees a forbidding picture of mankind's cosmos as a giant prison shaken by the winds of a metempsychosis entailing the passage of every soul through plants, animals and stones as well as humanoids. The spirits strove to help Hugo, family, and friends, cope with the unforgiving universe in which we live.

Victor Hugo's family and his friends come to life in the pages of this book. The novelist/poet's three children, all in their 20's, vital, talented, indomitable, reluctantly followed their world-famous father into exile. Charles, the oldest, is the begrudging medium, furious and rebellious under his apparent compliance. Adèle, the diarist, is on the verge of schizophrenia as she falls in love with the dangerous Lieutenant Pinson. François-Victor, troubled but scholarly, settles into the task of translating the complete works of Shakespeare. Count Sandor Teleki, valiant but war-weary, leader of the Hungarian contingent of political exiles, finds unexpected solace in the tapping tables. We meet the French Emperor Napoleon III, Victor Hugo's greatest enemy, wandering through the corridors of his palace in the night. A host of brilliant men in exile, frustrated, bitter, frenzied, living in a seething microcosm of daily political and personal turmoil, mingle with the spirit world and grapple with their destiny in Victor Hugo's Conversations with the Spirit World.

ROCK STAR POWER PROPELS HUGO'S CONVERSATIONS. (June 17, 2008.) A mention of Victor Hugo's Conversations with the Spirit World by rising 28-year-old Brit rock star Natasha Khan in an interview in the Manchester Guardian for Monday, June 16, sent sales of the book soaring on AMAZON.COM.UK (and probably in bookstores). Go to <<http://www.newpara.com/booknews.htm>> for story.

"Things to do on Jersey when you're dead..." This intriguing corner of the great novelist's life is exceptionally well documented in Victor Hugo's Conversations with the Spirit World, by John Chambers. Chambers, the first person to translate the séance transcripts into English (in an earlier edition of this book), does a fine job of evoking the atmosphere of the exiles' home away from home, their bitter homesickness and burgeoning fascination with the occult. His book is unusually well written for a study of this kind, laced with keen character sketches and absorbing sidelights on William Blake, James Merrill, and the Kabbalah. He presents the facts without undue speculation and lets his readers draw their own conclusions... Victor Hugo's Conversations with the Spirit World is a superb contribution to literary history and to the study of the paranormal. I recommend it highly."

"Hugo comes across as a complex man—as one would expect—egotistical and selfish, overbearing towards his family, yet sensitive and passionate on occasion. He was also capable of surprising insights, musing on time running backwards, or prefiguring David Bohm's holographic universe. While not convinced that the séances were 'the greatest... adventure into the supernatural that has ever been recorded,' I would agree that this is a fascinating story, and it is told in an engaging way." - Tom Ruffles, NTHPOSITION Online Magazine, March 2008.
